

I LOVE MY POINTY BOOBS!

I have worn vintage fashion every day for 6 years.
I started wearing bullet bras 2 years ago.

I CAN NEVER GO BACK!

"Bullet bras" go by many names:

The really exaggerated photos you tend to see in memes about bullet bras aren't what they actually looked like on the average woman.

But nevertheless, the intended effect is certainly to lift your titties to the high heavens and try not to poke someone's eye out!

REASONS I LOVE HAVING POINTY BOOBS:

My vintage clothes fit better

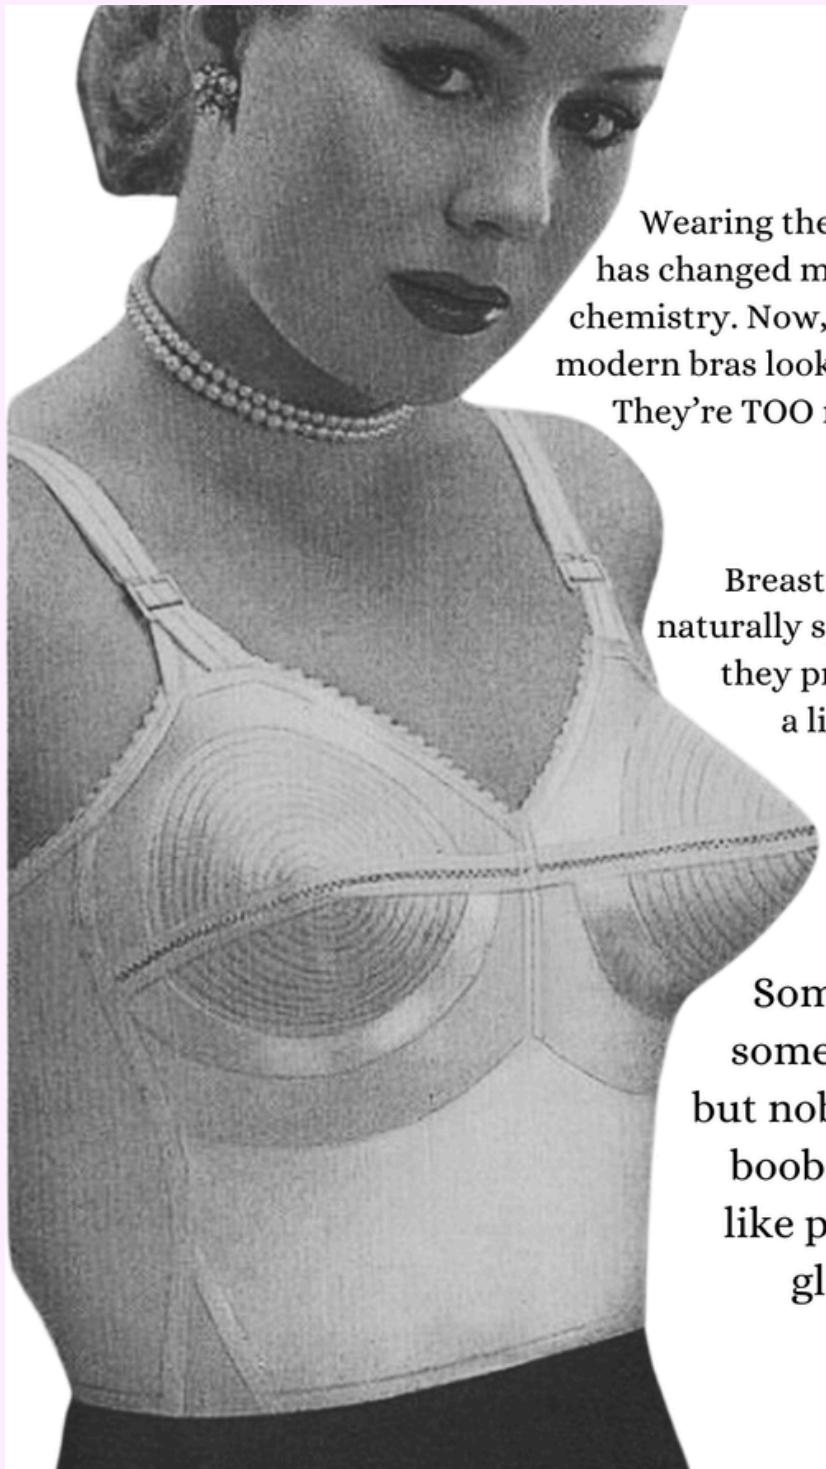

It makes my figure into a more dramatic hourglass

No painful underwire!

I love transforming into a pinup girl

My lesbian lover is really into it ;)

Wearing these bras
has changed my brain chemistry. Now, I think modern bras look weird!
They're TOO round...

Breasts aren't naturally spheres;
they protrude
a little bit!

Some sag,
some perk,
but nobody's boobs float like perfect globes...

WHAT'S NOT TO LOVE ? !
